

Investment Bank Petsky Prunier Adds John Fang as a Managing Director

Fang Focuses on Sectors Where Technology, Healthcare, and Consumer/Retail Intersect, Including E-commerce, Healthcare Technology, and FinTech

October 16, 2018 (New York, NY) – Petsky Prunier is pleased to announce that John Fang has joined the firm as a managing director. Fang will further expand Petsky Prunier’s investment banking coverage by focusing on sectors where technology, healthcare, and consumer/retail intersect, including e-commerce, healthcare technology, and fintech. He will be based in the firm’s New York office.

“Adding John to our team will bring tremendous value to our firm and clients, as technology continues to transform sectors such as retail, consumer, and healthcare. His entrepreneurial track record and client base will be accretive to our firm,” noted Sanjay Chadda, partner and managing director at Petsky Prunier.

Prior to joining Petsky Prunier, Fang co-founded and co-led Parcrest Advisors, where he helped build a thriving firm in less than two years and successfully sourced and closed transactions in the healthcare, technology, and e-commerce sectors, including a number of cross-border engagements.

Fang began his career as an investment banker at Merrill Lynch, then spent the next decade in the Debt Origination & Restructuring group of Raymond James investment bank and as a senior banker at Sonenshine Partners, an M&A boutique. He has advised a wide range of clients, including Fortune 50 companies, founder-backed ventures, global publicly traded businesses, and private equity portfolio companies in cross-border and domestic deals totaling in the billions.

John received an MBA in Finance from the Wharton School at the University of Pennsylvania, where he was elected to the Director’s List multiple times, and an A.B. magna cum laude with highest honors from Harvard College, where he was a Harvard College Scholar.

“Petsky Prunier is one of the fastest growing investment banks advising technology companies over the last decade,” said John Fang. “I am incredibly pleased to take the momentum I have built in my latest entrepreneurial venture and to combine it with the nearly 50-banker platform at Petsky Prunier to add value to my clients and take the firm to greater heights.”
